

BIOGRAPHY

TRAVIS JONES (HE/HIM) SENIOR CONSULTANT

Travis Jones is a Senior Consultant and Facilitator at The NeuroLeadership Institute. Travis has fifteen years of experience designing and delivering transformative learning experiences for organizations in the public and private sectors. He has delivered speaking engagements for companies like Disney, Pixar, JE Dunn Construction Group, Navy Nuclear Laboratory, Ingersoll Rand, LinkedIn as well as many colleges and Universities across the US. Before joining NLI, he spent the last ten years as a strategist and consultant in the DEI space. He is passionate about creating experiences that are interactive, deeply reflective, rooted in science and highly engaging. One of his speaking mantras is, “laughing people are learning people.”

He holds a B.A. in Philosophy and masters’ degrees in Theology and Sociology and completed course work in a Ph.D. program in Organizational Science. He is a certified facilitator in LEGO Serious Play, Facilitation for Racial Justice Work, NLI’s Brain Based Conversation Skills®, the Intercultural Development Inventory (IDI) and he is a Wilderness First Responder.